WE WANT YOU….
…. to be an Ash at Work author

We are interested in any articles that pertain to the coal combustion products industry for possible publication in our magazine, Ash at Work.  Having an article published in Ash at Work is a great way to let the beneficial use community know about your work.  Examples of topics that would be considered include the following:

- New and emerging technologies and applications
- Market conditions and opportunities
- Case studies
- Sustainability
- Test methods
- Ash handling and/or management
- Regulatory challenges
- Research projects

Please bear in mind, articles are not advertisements.  While identification of participating companies and products are appropriate, articles are intended to be informational.

We have a talented production staff available to polish submittals.  Therefore your submittal does not have to be a finished product.  We will provide the necessary formatting and editing.

If you have an idea for an article, feel free to e-mail Alyssa Barto with an abstract or outline.  High resolution photos are always a big plus.  Alyssa can be reached at alyssa.barto@acaa-usa.org.

Preference will be given to ACAA members and Ash at Work advertisers, so join today!
